FULL OR PART TIME ARCHITECT

We are looking for a creative Architect to oversee the design of residential and small commercial projects within our office.

If you have artistic flair, experience in the residential sector and have ARB/ RIBA accreditation, then we would love to hear from you.

FREELANCE ARCHITECTURAL TECHNOLOGIST

We are always on the look out for architectural designers and technologists to assist with the production of technical drawings for residential projects.

We pride ourselves on the accuracy and detail of our drawings, therefore only the most diligent and meticulous of technical designers should apply.

This is a freelance position, all applicants must have the capability and all necessary licences and insurances to work remotely.

DIRECTOR OF ARCHITECTURE

Are you a creative designer with extensive technical knowledge, great with people and have the desire to challenge yourself? Sound like alot to ask? Well it is, because we are looking for talented people out there who have what it takes to run their very own Bastion office.

We are looking to expand our Bastion network and create satellite offices across the UK. Run by really talented designers like you, with the branding, support and system of us behind them.

If you've ever dreamt of running your own company but don't want to take the risk and financial outlay of setting up a business, then this might just be for you, get in touch and let's chat.

For all applications, please send your CV portfolio and a covering letter to the following:
